Notes for WILLIAM BRYANT:

What is Known or guessed at.

William was a son of William and Hannah CODGBROOK.

There is nothing known about early Childhood or Schooling, but at a young age he was apparently Apprenticed to Tailoring, and obviously made it his Life's work, because his Death Certificate stated Occupation as "Master Tailor".

William was Married to Mary FIELD on July 2, 1846 by Joseph W. Ayre, Curate of All Hallows, Wellingborough Parish Church. Most of the Building is approximately 600 Years old, and the Tower Bells, which still Peal, (1970), date back to 1604, the Stained Glass Windows Date back to the 1870's.

The 1851 Census finds William and Mary living in Silver St in Wellingborough, William 28 Tailer, Mary 28, with Eliza 5, William 4, Thomas 4 Mths and a Servant Eliza Beebey 14 and Apprentice Lewis Husward 15.

Notes for MARY FIELD:

What is known or is guessed at.

Mary FIELD was born in 1823 in Olney, Buckinghamshire (Milton Keyes), She was a Daughter of Thomas FIELD, and Mary. There is no Record of Baptism for a child of Thomas and Mary FIELD in the Parish Register of Sts. Peter and Paul Olney. (This church erected 1325/50 was extensively renovated in 1807, and was the Home Church of the English Poet William COWPER (1731-1800), who was the Author of such Familiar Hymns as "O for a Closer walk with God (thee)". and "There Is a Fountain Filled with Blood" and also of John NEWTON (1725-1807) Author of the Immortal "Amazing Grace". Olney is also the site of the famous Pancake race each Shrove Tuesday which has been run since 1445).

Notes for FRANCES LOUISA COX:

Regarding the Birth of Frances Louisa COX.

There is some doubt surrounding the Birth of Frances. It is noted on the Census Form for 1891, that Frances was Born in Wellingborough, and again in 1901, The only Birth that is at all possibly that of our Frances, is Listed in Wellingborough, June Q'tr, 1878, 3b 164, but, it is for a Frances BRADEN, with the Mother listed as Catherine BRADEN, nee Ashfield, Father listed as Charles William BRADEN, a Hawker.

The Census of 1891, and 1901, both List the Mother of Frances as Catherine, 1901 uses Katherine, (most likely the way in which the person doing the Census thought it was spelt).

Following some extensive Research, by myself and others, there does not appear to be any Marriage for a Catherine Ashfield and Charles William BRADEN in any of the Counties of England around the Years of the Birth of Frances, so it may be reasonable to assume that the Birth was indeed "out of Wedlock", and Catherine may have assumed the Name for the purpose of a Legitimate Birth, it was not until some years later that attendance of the Father was made compulsory. There is a recorded Marriage of Charles William BRADEN (Born ENGLAND), and somebody, in USA in 1880. Did Charles flee to USA in disgrace?, or was it an innocent departure, that is if it is indeed the same Charles, (more Research).

Another interesting find is that in 1881 Census, in Northamptonshire, there is no record of a Catherine and Frances BRADEN, but, in Bedfordshire, in a Boarding House there is a Catherine and Frances (aged 3Yrs), rooming with a Charles SOLE, both are listed as Hawkers, recall the Birth Cert said Hawker as the Occupation of the "Father" Charles Braden ?. This has been investigated, and the Sole Family have no record at all of this Matte. It now appears that Catherine may have been quite a Hawker herself, and travelled the "Fairs" and "Markets" of the District.
